

JAPS FORCED TO GIVE BACK

Russians Follow Every Little Advantage, and Drive Plucky Japs From Positions.

MAIN ATTACK TO COME VERY SOON

It Is Said That the Preliminary Attacks Have Been But the Prelude for the Grand Assault Upon Port Arthur.

[Special by Scripps-McLure.]
Tokio, June 15.—A dispatch received today states the entrance to Port Arthur is again open. The Russian cruiser Rostov, the dispatch adds, emerged and engaged the Japanese fleet.

Cheong Foo, June 15.—A report from Russian sources states the Japanese suffered severe reverses north of Kinchow. No confirmation.

Naval Battle.
London, June 15.—A Tokyo correspondent of the Central News wires a naval battle is proceeding off the island of Tsushima, between Japan and Korea, between three cruisers of the Russian Vladivostok squadron and some Japanese vessels. The captain of a Japanese steamer reports this morning he was fired on by the Russian fleet. Heavy cannonading has also been heard this morning in the direction of Hsichuan, not far from Tsushima.

Disentry.
Rome, June 15.—A Mukden correspondent of the Agenzia Libera wires the extreme heat has resulted in a serious epidemic of dysentery among the Russian troops.

Many Skirmishes.
St. Petersburg, June 15.—Gen. Stakelberg, through the army headquarters at Lushan, reports a number of desperate skirmishes with the Japanese in which both sides lost heavily and in one of which the Russian general, Gergross, was severely wounded. The report was made public here last night and confirms reports already telegraphed in part by correspondents in the field.

"At midday" on Tuesday an entire division of Japanese made a desperate attack on the left flank of the Russian position at Wa Fang Kow. They attacked in three columns, and, after shelling the Russians with heavy artillery, made desperate bayonet charges in the face of a heavy fire from rapid fire guns and musketry.

Japs Leave 300 Dead.
The desperation of the Japanese is shown by the fact that some of them succeeded in getting within a few yards of the Russian trenches before being shot down. They were finally compelled to retire leaving fully three hundred dead.

The first Siberian Rifles bore the brunt of the attack and their losses were very heavy. Their colonel, Khvastounoff, fell almost at the first fire with a bullet through his brain. Two majors and a number of officers of lesser rank were picked off by the Japanese sharpshooters, whose fire was unusually accurate and deadly.

Gen. Gergross May Die.
Gen. Gergross was shot just as the Japanese attacking column broke and fled. He was picked up and hurried to the rear where it was stated that his injuries are very serious and may prove mortal. A report was also received from Gen. Kharkovitch telling of the battle of the outposts at Lushan last Saturday. He states that the Japanese attacked from front and flank early in the afternoon and the fighting raged until late; finally the Japanese were driven back and the Russians followed up their advantage under the cover of the night.

Russian Victory Reported.
Just before dawn the Russians charged the heights of Lushan, Tung carrying the Japanese position with a loss of but four killed and eighteen wounded. Gen. Kharkovitch also reports that his scouts have reported to him that a Japanese column numbering 3,000 men is marching toward Hsuehsiang.

Attacking Port Arthur.
The Foo, June 15.—The final assault on Port Arthur began today according to reports which reach here from sources hitherto found reliable. Nearly 50,000 Japanese are said to be engaged in the actual attack, while half as many more are engaged in diverting the fire of the entire line of forts not hitherto captured by the investing force.

The Japanese warships are taking part in the battle. They have drawn in closer than at any time since the sinking of the Hatake and are pouring a storm of shells into the fortress.

Russ Shlows Driven Back.
It is reported that Admiral Witsoff made another sortie last night, but was greeted with such a hot fire that he was compelled to go back into the harbor to avoid annihilation. It is believed now that Admiral Witsoff will at the final moment destroy the ships of his squadron rather than send the men under his command to certain destruction.

No definite news of the result of the fighting about Port Arthur has been received, but it is taken as a foregone conclusion that Gen. Oku will be successful in his attack and that Port Arthur will be in his hands within the next day or two.

Defense Is Weak

Gen. Stoessel is expected to make a desperate resistance, but he is believed to have less than 20,000 men, including the sailors from the squadron and outside the naval brigade. These men are as a rule militia, who are brave enough without the military training, which enables them to stand such a four months as there has been at Port Arthur.

Russians Desert Port Arthur.
Cheong Foo, June 15.—Chinese refugees from Port Arthur report that the troops there have been placed on two-thirds rations of rice. It is reported that hundreds of Russians have deserted and made their way to Chinese territory.

Heavy Fighting by Land Forces

Tokio, June 15.—The Vladivostok squadron is reported in the Korean straits. Firing has been heard on Tanoshima, a small island lying off the southwest of Honshu Island. It is possible that an engagement is progressing.

Cheong Foo, June 15.—The captain of a steamer which passed through the Gulf of Pechili last Monday night, reports seeing the searchlights of a large fleet, also flashes from their guns, twenty-eight miles southwest of Port Arthur. This observation was made, the captain states, between 10:30 o'clock Monday night and 3 o'clock Tuesday morning. He was unable to discern the lights of any opposing vessels.

Say Japs Are Repulsed.
St. Petersburg, June 15.—A Japanese force, which is reported to consist of 20,000 men, attacked the Russians at Vangow, a station on the railway six miles north of Kinchow, at noon Tuesday. The result of the engagement is in doubt, the reports of the Russian commander, Lieut. Gen. Baron Stakelberg, being sent while the fighting was in progress. It is known, however, that an attempt of the Japanese to dislodge the left flank of the Russian position was repulsed, although the first regiment, which was in the midst of the fighting sustained severe losses, losing its commander and other officers. Gen. Gergross was seriously wounded in the jaw, which was shattered, but refused to leave the field.

Tells of Japanese Attack.
A special dispatch from Liao-yang dated June 14 says:
"Monday, at the battle of Vangow, Japanese troops numbering 20,000 tried to pass our flank, but were discovered. We changed our position, flanking the Japanese, and opened a heavy fire. The result is unknown."

The same correspondent in a later dispatch says:
"Tuesday the battle continues. The Japanese have opened a heavy fire on our center."
"On the night of June 12, southwest of Vangow, the Cossacks came in contact with the Japanese and drove them from their position. We lost two men. Japanese losses were fifteen men and twenty horses."

Seeks to Clear Lactung.
It is thought here that the Vangow affair may prove to have been quite a heavy fight. The fact that the Russians held their position in the face of heavy losses also supports this theory, and it is believed that it may turn out to be a severe check to the Japanese northern advance.

According to information in the possession of the war office, two divisions of the enemy are now marching north along the railroad toward Vangow. They have had constant skirmishes with the Russians, who retired up to the time of the battle. Although it is too early to determine the exact purpose of the advance, the presumption of the general staff is that the northward movement is intended to effect a junction at Kalehau with the column from Siyuen, which is still moving westward. The bombardment of the coast near Kalehau and the blockade of Newchwang might indicate that the ultimate object of the combined movements is to clear the Lactung Peninsula of Russians and occupy Newchwang as a new base. The garrison at Newchwang, P. is claimed here, remains undisturbed, but it is not believed that the Russian plans contemplate a serious attempt to hold Newchwang.

The annual pulpwood season opened Monday at Long Tail point, a few miles north of Green Bay. From this point until late in the fall no less than twenty-five carloads daily will reach Fox River valley paper mills.

R. P. Serrano, who was nominated for vice president of Mexico recently, will no doubt succeed Gen. Diaz. It is felt that the soldier-president will have things in proper shape when he gives up the reins of government.

Green Flowers Are Rare.
Green flowers are very rare in nature. The lily, of which many varieties are common in our gardens, is one of the very few plants which has a natural green variety. Schomburgk was its discoverer in South Africa, the home of all the lilies.

Old Notion of Sea Serpent.
Olaus Magnus wrote in the middle ages of a sea serpent 200 feet long and 20 feet thick which haunted rocks and caves near the sea coast, the old writer adding, "and he puts up his head up high like a pillar and catcheth away men, and he devours them."

Products of Coal.
If a pound of coal is subjected to a dry distillation and the products and residual treated chemically—the processes for obtaining the well-known coal tar colors—it will yield enough magenta to color 500 yards of flannel vermillion, for 2,500 yards, urine for 120 yards and alizarin sufficient for 155 yards of red cloth.

PAYNE COLLAPSES IN HOTEL TODAY

The Postmaster General is in a Serious Condition at the Auditorium Annex.

Chicago, Ill., June 15.—Postmaster General Henry C. Payne, chairman of the republican national committee, collapsed at the Auditorium Annex this morning. It is said epilepsy is the cause. It is believed he will have to give up all the work in connection with the coming convention and campaign.

KEEP UP DEPORTATION FROM CRIPPLE CREEK

Business Men Demand Dissolution of Miners' Federation and Trades Assembly in Teller County.

Cripple Creek, Colo., June 15.—Thirty prisoners confined in the bull pen were placed aboard a Florence and Cripple Creek train and deported. Their cars will be attached to a Denver and Rio Grande train at Florence and taken to Pueblo. From there, it is understood, the men will be placed aboard a Santa Fe train and taken south.

A committee of forty leading business men unanimously agreed upon the following statement of the attitude of employers toward organized labor in this district:

"In the future neither walking delegates, agitators nor labor unions will be allowed to say who may or who may not labor in Teller county; who may or who may not do business here. The source of all strife in the Cripple Creek district has been the Western Federation of Miners and the Trades Assembly, which they dominated, and through which they carried out their boycotts, etc."

"There is no room in Teller county for these two organizations, and their existence will be tolerated no longer."

Virgil King, Charles Matthews and Patrick Mullany were taken from the Victor bullpen to the county jail. The military authorities say that King and Mullany will be charged with complicity in the independence dynamiting, and that Matthews is held as a witness. The three men are prominent members of the Western Federation of Miners.

Seek to Improve Hay Crop.
About one-fourth of the hay crop of the United States is produced from wild grass. The department is trying to improve some of these wild grasses, for it is asserted that some of them are of superior value as forage, and well worth bringing under cultivation. These experiments are now being carried on in several places in the far west.

Inquiry for African Roads.
London, June 15.—Persistent adverse criticism of the management of the South African railways under Lieutenant Colonel Sir Edward Percy Girouard led to the appointment of a committee of inquiry and it is rumored that the commissioner already has resigned.

Postoffice Is Robbed of $2,000.
Billings, Mont., June 15.—Robbers blew open the safe in the postoffice at Laurel, seventeen miles west of here, at an early hour Tuesday, and secured about $2,000.

STATE NOTES

Detectives at work in Campbellport on the attempted North-Western railway wrecking case expect to make arrests shortly.

The Rev. Father Joly, pastor of St. Matthew's church, at Campbellport, has raised $21,000 for a new church, to be erected there.

The La Crosse man killed by a Burlington train at Ferryville on Sunday has been identified as Joseph Kendall, 61 years of age, an uncle of David Kendall.

Outagamie county farmers fear they will not realize a ripe crop of corn this year, claiming the crop is now five weeks later than ever before at this time of year.

The state convention of Scandinavian Baptist churches opened in Racine Tuesday. The church there will celebrate its fortieth jubilee on Saturday. Speakers are to be present from Chicago, Milwaukee and foreign countries.

Several hundred farmers of the town of Grand Chute, Outagamie county, will begin work soon digging an immense drainage ditch, three miles in length, to improve a vast tract of swamp land which is now practically worthless.

Farmers living northeast of Appleton threaten damage suits against the Outagamie Construction company, which is building a gasoline Interurban because the company's surveying crew is staking a route through three miles of farms.

The La Crosse and Onalaska Railway company has elected the following officers: President, B. Y. Hyde, La Crosse; vice president, F. E. Nichols, Onalaska; secretary and treasurer, W. H. Schall, Onalaska. All are re-elections except Mr. Hyde, who succeeds W. W. Carrell.

The 18 months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Seftik, at Racine, was run down by a Milwaukee electric railway car, on High street, Tuesday, while attempting to cross the tracks. Motorman Larson dropped the life guard and the girl was carried thirty feet. The child will probably die.

Water of the Mediterranean.
Most of the Mediterranean is over a mile deep, but its surface were lowered only eight hundred feet it would be separated from the Atlantic at the Strait of Gibraltar, and divided into two seas by a land connection between Sicily and the African coast of Tunis.

Too Much Experience.
"No, my boy," said the old gentleman. "I shall not make you my bookkeeper, although you are to have a place in my office. As a bookkeeper you are just a little too expert for me, for I learned what you can do with figures by studying the expense accounts you sent me while at college."

Cattle as Beasts of Burden.
Cattle in Bavaria are much used in plowing and hauling. They are frequently yoked in a curious manner, so that the pull comes from the forehead and not from the neck, or rather shoulders, which is the ordinary way elsewhere.

Traveling in India.
Every one who goes to India to travel or live at hotels, says Mr. W. E. Curtis, must have a personal servant, a native who performs the duties of valet, waiter and errand boy, and whatever else may be required of him. This is a fixed custom of the country, to resist which brings endless trouble to the traveler.

AWFUL SCENES WERE ENACTED

Five Hundred Excursionists Lost Their Lives in a Burning Vessel Off Long Island.

LUTHERAN SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC

Sixteen Hundred Passengers Were on Board—None Escaped Without Some Injury—Were Heart Rendering.

[Special by Scripps-McLure.]
New York, June 15.—The steamboat General Slocum, with an excursion party of sixteen hundred aboard, mostly children, took fire in the upper works, and ran ashore at North Brothers island this morning. Before she could be reached the fire ran from stem to stern. Many jumped overboard and were drowned and others were burned to death on the boat. A telephone operator states the water near the island is full of floating bodies. Quite a number were saved and are being cared for on the island. Later reports say five hundred lives were lost.

The Knickerbocker Steamboat company, owners of the Slocum boat, received a message from North Brothers island, that the boat had burned to the water's edge. The hull is still burning. The police have so far picked up eleven bodies. One is that of a child and the others are mostly women. The boat carried an excursion of the Sunday school of St. Mark's Lutheran church on Sixth street, near Bowery.

At noon the best estimate of the number of lives lost is between two and three hundred. About fifty bodies had been recovered at that time. The police on tug boats and steamers are on the sound looking for others. Dozen ambulances, a score of physicians and nurses and all the police reserves of the city are on the scene of the rescue of bodies and to give succor to the living and injured.

Captain Van Schaick, the veteran navigator of New York waters, was in command of the boat. The boat was bound for Locust Grove, Long Island sound, for a picnic. All was well until it had passed Hell Gate. Then the cry of "Fire" arose. The flames were discovered among the life preservers, but how it started is not known. The captain gave the fire alarm and headed the boat for the rockbound shores north of North Brothers island. The flames spread with lightning rapidity.

Frightful scenes ensued. Mothers gathered their children in their arms and leaped overboard. Others were attacked by the flames and burned to death. Many stood by the boat until it neared the shore, only to be drowned when they jumped overboard. The boat was surrounded by dead bodies and struggling passengers. The few people on the island rescued many in small boats. Tugs picked up others. The steamboat Massasoit took thirty dead, mostly women and children, including many injured, to New York. Fire Chief Crocker was early at the scene and came from the island at one this afternoon. He said the catastrophe was a frightful one. He believed the dead will number four or five hundred. He said the injured included about everybody who have been saved.

Captain Van Schaick, First Pilot Van Wart and Second Pilot Leader were rescued. Capt. Van Schaick gives a vivid description. The boat was off the sunken meadows when he heard the cry of fire. He left the wheel in charge of the pilot and started in the cabin to find the trouble. The passageway was jammed with women and children, many women with babies in their arms. He tried to calm them but the flames were all about them and they were compelled to rush for a pall of water as their hats and clothing were afire. When he saw the fire was beyond control he gave order to beach the boat. Before the vessel reached the shore the panic-stricken people trampled upon one another and those who could reach the side of the vessel jumped overboard. Captain's clothing was aso in several places. When fifty feet from shore he jumped and swam ashore.

Awfully Burned.
Some of the injured were taken from the Massasoit and were found to have had their hair and clothing almost entirely burned off. The children were blackened and burned and soiling wet, showing that the mothers had thrown them overboard when the fire reached them. The Slocum burned to the water's edge. Fire boats are flooding her with water so the hull can be searched for bodies. Bodies are being recovered all along the New York shore and along North Brothers island and the shores of Rikers island. Up to this afternoon fifty to seventy-five bodies had been brought to New York. Fifty female nurses hurried to the foot of 135th street to help care for the injured. The Slocum was one of the largest excursion boats in the harbor being 225 feet in length, and rated A-1 by insurance companies. It was fully protected with fire extinguishers and was built in 1891.

Many Adults.
It is learned nine hundred tickets were sold to adults. It is estimated the mothers took from five to eight

FIX UPON FRIDAY TO HEAR THE WISCONSIN DISPUTE

National Convention Committee Has Much to Accomplish in the Preliminary Work.

Chicago, Ill., June 15.—Wisconsin is on the Republican map politically as it never has been before in its history. There can be no doubt that the stellar attraction at the coming Republican national convention is to be the Wisconsin factional row. Most of the republican national committee-men came here with an idea that the Wisconsin trouble could be compromised. They know differently now, and are aware there can be no shirking the Wisconsin fight.

That a thorough hearing may be given the case, a whole day will likely be devoted to the Wisconsin situation, and announcement was made from the national committee headquarters this morning that Friday would be devoted by the committee to hearing the Wisconsin case.

Both sides have their representatives on the ground. Of the anti-La Follette people Senator Spooner arrived last night and Senator Charles this morning. Attorney J. M. Olin, who will present the anti-La Follette case, arrived last night.

W. D. Connor, chairman of the La Follette state central committee, arrived here yesterday. He stated this morning that Gov. La Follette, H. W. Chynoweth and H. C. Cochens would present the La Follette side of the issue. Messrs. Chynoweth and Cochens will reach here this afternoon. Now that it is known the Wisconsin hearing will not be until Friday, the Governor may not come to Chicago until Thursday.

Although the La Follette people would gladly accept a division of the delegation, the anti-La Follette delegation will demand that the case be decided, and it is this fact that has led the national committee to decide to act in the matter and not attempt any compromises in the situation. The Anti-La Follette people admit never accept such a proposition was plainly evidenced by the dislike shown by Mr. Connor for the plan this morning. He would not talk about the matter and declared the La Follette people would not cross such a bridge until it was reached. He said that as the concern of the national convention was simply relative to the seating of the delegates at large, he did not think the convention would desire to arbitrate a state ticket fight. The La Follette people, however, will not place themselves in a position where Gov. La Follette will not be able to run independently if decisions on regularly are against him.

The decision of the national committee in regard to the Wisconsin delegates at large affects only their standing on the temporary roll-call. The national convention will be final arbiter of the case, and with this idea in view the anti-La Follette people have made up a brief statement of their case which will be placed in the hands of all the delegates to the convention.

Congressman Babcock arrived at the Auditorium at noon and at once went into conference with Senators Quarles and Spooner.

Chairman Theodore Goldin of the anti-La Follette state central committee and State Senator Bland arrived here yesterday afternoon.

POLICE MATTERS ARE DISCUSSED

NEED OF MORE OFFICERS VERY APPARENT.

PRESENT FORCE HANDICAPPED

Council Should Take Some Steps at Once—Needs Increasing Each Day.

To the Editor: Perhaps I ought to address this letter to "Old Foggy" as it is directly at his letters I am talking. "Old Foggy" states his opinion of city affairs and always shades them so that the police department has the best of the argument. I do not mean to attack the existing department, except to state that they are not enough to care for this city and the existing needs. Ten years ago, when Chief Hogan was in his prime, they could handle matters, but today we need at least four more patrolmen to really guard the public interests sufficiently. "Old Foggy" had the right idea when he talked of an officer at the city hall all the time and a general reorganization of the force but he did not look into the law and conditions of the matter which make such a reorganization impossible at the present time. It is up to the council to act. With them and the mayor alone lies the responsibility for the lawlessness which seems to pervade the city. The fear of John Hogan's name has waned with his illness and the present corps of policemen, no matter how able and efficient, can not handle the whole city without any authority to do so and restricted by the fact that the city marshal who, has absolute control is away for an indefinite time. This condition of affairs exists and try as hard as the council can it cannot get away from the facts. Janesville today is in a hard position. Fights are frequent and our police force too small to cope with the situation. Something must be done and must be done at once. Officers Brown, Cochrane, Fanning and Bencke do the best they can, but "there are not enough of them." Fanning and Bencke are night men and sleep most of the day. This leaves about the work, as well as part of the night work, to Brown and Cochrane. In order to cover the entire city these officers have to drive from end to end. They cannot be everywhere at once and as a result while they are in the neighborhood of the Willows small boys are swimming without lights near Croake's brewery. They are no more afraid of being caught than are the gang of toughs who lie in the courthouse park and drink whiskey from a bottle during the warm summer afternoons. They know that there are but two policemen on duty and that they are busy as bees somewhere else. When they see them coming, they slip away and return when they are out of sight. Last Sunday there were two fights and a drunken woman creating disturbances about the city and none of the cases were the police able to arrive on the scene until after the trouble was over. Testimony in the Joyce trial showed that the courthouse park was a resort for toughs who came from all parts of the city. At times this summer it has not been safe for ladies to pass through, even in the daytime, and be perfectly free from insults or revolting sights. Beloit is a closed town on Sunday and the riff raff comes to Janesville. Rockford police have taught the line city toughs to keep away from their city by arresting them and compelling them to play heavy fines. So they come to Janesville. This delay in increasing our police protection is due to but one thing. We all know what this is and while we hesitate to make any open complaint and charge, the lawlessness increases and we are drifting into a worse situation than ever before. The council should put sentiment behind them and act for the best good of the citizens whose interests they represent in the council. The taxpayers, the voters, the women and children of the city, are of importance and their interests and safety and comfort should be protected. D. D.

LITTLE ROMANCE FROM MADISON

University Student Marries Son of the Janitor of the Post Office.

"No, papa, I will not give him up. He will not drink after we are married. I love him and will have him. He tells me he loves me, and I will reform him."

This is the spirited reply of Miss Natalie Vetter of Madison to her father in reply to his demand that she break her engagement and forever give up Henry C. Dickert, a bookbinder, son of John Dickert, a janitor at the Madison postoffice.

They were married in Chicago Monday, the bride sending a telegraphic message to that effect, which caused consternation to her father, a prominent contractor of this city. The match had been strenuously opposed by the girl's parents, on the ground that the young man was in temperate. Close watch was kept on Natalie, but with the assistance of friends she outwitted her parents and was carried to Chicago Sunday by her betrothed.

Miss Vetter was a Wisconsin University girl and lived during the college year at the aristocratic coeds' dormitory, Chadbourne hall. They are expected to return for a hoped-for parental forgiveness Wednesday.

AMONG THE WORLD'S WORKERS

News Notes From Various Sources of Great Interest to the Workingman.

There are at present about 50 strikes of machinists throughout the country—some caused by attempts of employers to return to the 10-hour day, others by orders to resist reductions in wages, and many were declared on account of refusal of members of the craft to sign individual contracts which require that they sever their connection with any organization that joins in a sympathetic strike.

An effort will be made to bring a bill before the next Pennsylvania Legislature by which each coal company will be required to pay $100 for each man or boy killed in or about its mines. This will provide the deceased's family with funeral expenses and money to meet its urgent needs.

The discontent induced by famine and lack of employment has reached the point in Russia where a revolutionary outbreak is imminent.

The farmers of Texas are being unionized at a rapid rate. There are today some 3,000 unions in Texas with a total membership of 40,000 or more.

Factory legislation and the apprentice system are receiving attention at the hands of the lawmakers in Japan. The average working day varies from twelve to sixteen hours, and the wages are small as compared with this country. In Japan the excess of males over females employed in various industries is 2 per cent.

The International Typographical Union, having formally relinquished jurisdiction over the photographing branch of the printing industry; it is understood that the International Photo-Engravers' Union will secure a charter direct from the American Federation of Labor.

The machine industry of Germany was never in worse condition than at present. First the great depression in industrial life all over the Empire, and second, the enormous strides in the use of gas engines and steam turbines within the last few years.

NORTH RIVER ST. A BUSY LOCATION

Work Among Its Industries Continues to Increase, and Business Is Rushing.

North River street is one of the principal streets in the downtown district where one can find all kinds of manufacturing establishments, all of which are doing an excellent business. The two latest additions to the North River street manufacturing plants are the Rock County Mineral Water company, and the Western Shoe company of Milwaukee.

The Rock River Mineral Water company, although the factory has only been established here some months, the water has been sold in Chicago and the surrounding towns for a number of years past. The Mineral Water company is in charge of C. F. Sautemeyer, of Chicago, who is known as the business in Chicago. A large first bottom boat is used to bring the water down from the springs about twice every week. This boat has a capacity of several thousand gallons of water, and is towed from the bottling works to the springs by a thirty foot steam launch. George Stott, the St. Louis representative of the company has sent about fifty car loads of the mineral water to St. Louis so far this season. Two carloads a week are shipped to Chicago dealers, besides the large amount of their product which goes to the several other towns in the state of Wisconsin and Illinois. Harry Day is superintendent of the bottling department at their plant on North River street, having fully understood the business, having had charge of the same before they located their bottling department in this city.

Western Shoe Co. are doing a fine business in their new location. The company make a specialty of men's and youths' shoes, which in workmanship and material have no equal. The company are now making two hundred pairs of shoes a day, with a force of fifty hands employed, but expect to increase the capacity of the plant to three hundred or three hundred and fifty pair a day within the next few weeks. They have several large orders for immediate shipment and their salesmen are now sending in large orders every day.

PICKLED HUMAN HEAD.

The head of a South American tribal chieftain, cut off and preserved by his conqueror, a neighboring barbarian king, is a growsome but interesting exhibit in the Brazilian section of the Anthropological building at the World's Fair. The head is a part of a collection of relics of the native tribes of Brazil.

After being cut off, the head was treated after the custom in such cases by having all the facial and skull bones removed. It was then put through a process of curing that hardens the flesh and preserves the original color. As a result the head is practically unchanged, except in size. The process reduces the size and the once-savage chieftain's head now appears about the size of a man's hat. A luxuriant growth of hair of more than a foot in length is appended to the diminutive relic, the features of which are perfectly preserved. The mustache and beard are also perfect.

The specimen was secured from the warrior who decapitated it in the interior of South America and is the only relic of the nature on exhibition anywhere.

George S. Parker left this morning for St. Louis.

WHITTAKER TALKS ON BARBER LAWS

Says That a More Rigid Enforcement of Existing Laws Will Be Followed This Year.

M. H. Whittaker of the state barbers' board, is in Milwaukee preparing for the issuing of new license certificates, as the first year of the present licenses will expire in July. Regarding the work of the board for the ensuing year Mr. Whittaker said yesterday:

"We intend to enforce the rules of the board more strictly than ever for the second year. There was much extra work to be done during the first twelve months, and this has prevented to some extent the carrying out of the regulations as we intend, but more will be accomplished in the future. Reports still come in of a few barbers in small towns in the northern part of the state who have not yet secured licenses, and prosecutions will be begun against these as soon as the other work of the board permits."

"The semi-annual examinations for apprentices and men from outside the state will begin in August and last probably three months. They will be held, so far as has been decided, in this city. Eau Claire, Ashland, La Crosse, Green Bay, and Milwaukee. Postals will be sent every barber in the state reminding them of the fact that the license for the second year will be due next month, and as the remittances of one dollar are received new certificates will be sent out."

OLD SOLDIERS AT MADISON MEETING

Two Wisconsin Veteran Associations Holding Their Annual Reunions.

Madison.—Two regiments, the twelfth and sixteenth Wisconsin volunteers of the Civil war invaded Madison yesterday and took possession of the public buildings and parks. Reunion meetings were held in the courthouse, officers elected and a huge bonfire followed in the evening at which the principal speaker was ex-Governor Hoard. The reunions of yesterday were but a prelude to the state G. A. R. encampment which met this morning. Tents are pitched in the Capitol park, lending a military effect unusually picturesque to the occasion, the hotels are filled with old soldiers and their families, Sons of Veterans and Ladies Relief corps badges mingle with the throng of somber hued insignia of actual service during the dark days of the rebellion and general felicitations good-naturedly usurp other interests. Captain Piny Norcross of Janesville and Duncan McGregor of Plattville are the most prominent candidates for state commander, the election to occur tomorrow. At the twelfth regiment reunion General George E. Bryant presided, having been elected to the office at the national encampment in Chicago in 1900. Glad S. Swain of Wisconsin, who was similarly selected as secretary, died since the last state encampment and U. W. Root, custodian of the Grand Army Memorial museum, was chosen successor. Captain D. C. Jones of Dodgeville was elected vice president of company C, and J. T. Ferrill of Boscobel was made vice president of company K. The sixteenth regiment elected D. G. James of Richland Center president and James R. Martin of Dodgeville secretary. A committee was appointed to draw resolutions on the death of Comrade Swain.

PLAN PICNIC FOR A SUNDAY HERE

Milwaukee Barbers Will Come to Janesville on Their Annual Outing

Milwaukee barbers are planning for a monster picnic to Janesville on some Sunday this summer. They have as yet set no exact date but it is probable that it will be held during July. It is expected if the excursion materializes there will be several other excursions here of barbers from northern Illinois on the same day.

SCIENCE PREVENTS BALDNESS.

The Fatal Germ and Its Remedy Now Facts of Science.

It is the rarest thing in the world for a man to be necessarily bald. No man whose hair is not dead at the roots, need be bald if he will use Newbro's Herpicide, the new scalp antiseptic. Herpicide destroys the germ that cuts the hair off at the root; and cleans the scalp of dandruff and leaves it in a perfectly healthy condition. Mr. Mannett, in the Maryland Block, Butte, Mont., was entirely bald. In less than a month Herpicide had removed the enemies of hair growth, and nature did its work by covering his head with thick hair in a month, and in six weeks he had a normal suit of hair. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

MOODY SUCCEEDS KNOX AS ATTORNEY GENERAL. Secretary of Navy to Be Appointed by President to Vacancy Left by New Senator.

Washington, June 14.—William H. Moody, secretary of the navy, will be appointed by President Roosevelt as attorney general, to succeed Mr. Knox, who has been appointed senator from Pennsylvania. This appointment will not be made for two or three months, or probably not until after the election.

Mr. Moody desires to resume the practice of law, and some time ago made known his intention to retire from the cabinet for that purpose. His work in the navy department has not been entirely congenial to the Massachusetts man, and his transfer to the department of justice may induce him to remain in the cabinet until the end of the present administration.

It is not improbable, however, that he may retire sooner, but it is certain he will not serve longer than March, even in the event of the election of President Roosevelt.

Assistant Secretary Darling, in all probability, will be made secretary of the navy for the remainder of the administration.

MOODY SUCCEEDS KNOX AS ATTORNEY GENERAL. Secretary of Navy to Be Appointed by President to Vacancy Left by New Senator.

Washington, June 14.—William H. Moody, secretary of the navy, will be appointed by President Roosevelt as attorney general, to succeed Mr. Knox, who has been appointed senator from Pennsylvania. This appointment will not be made for two or three months, or probably not until after the election.

Mr. Moody desires to resume the practice of law, and some time ago made known his intention to retire from the cabinet for that purpose. His work in the navy department has not been entirely congenial to the Massachusetts man, and his transfer to the department of justice may induce him to remain in the cabinet until the end of the present administration.

It is not improbable, however, that he may retire sooner, but it is certain he will not serve longer than March, even in the event of the election of President Roosevelt.

Assistant Secretary Darling, in all probability, will be made secretary of the navy for the remainder of the administration.

ANOTHER SPECIES OF VENOM.

The Governor's Milwaukee organ, through its Madison correspondent, insults the Grand Army of the Republic, now in session at the Capital city, by the following screech on Captain Norcross, whose name is being used in connection with the office of Grand Commander of the state. "The rivalry is chiefly for the election of commander. Duncan MacGregor of Platteville and Pliny Norcross of Janesville are the candidates. Mr. Norcross is the stalwart candidate for election to the assembly from the Janesville district of Rock county and it is understood that he seeks the office of commander in order to assist and give prestige to his political canvass. There is nothing too sacred to escape attack by the venom of the Governor's supporters and the Grand Army men will not be slow to resent the unwarranted attack on their Janesville comrade. Captain Norcross was the first university man, as well as the first Rock county man to enlist in the war of the rebellion. He went into the army when patriotism was the only incentive, and his war record is beyond reproach. As a citizen of Janesville for the last 40 years, no comment is necessary. He has been closely identified with the growth and development of the city and it was perfectly natural for the manufacturers and business men to ask him to represent their interests in the next assembly. No better man could have been found for the responsible position, and if the honor comes to him it is as well served there will be no freak legislation. Regarding his candidacy for Grand Commander of the G. A. R. that is a matter which is entirely in the hands of his comrades. The "Post" of which he is a member, selected J. L. Bear for this position and his name was freely used around the state until Mr. Bear withdrew as a candidate, because of plans which interfered with his giving attention to duties of the office. If elected, The Post then united on Captain Norcross and insisted on giving him support. He reluctantly consented, and if the honor comes to him it will be unsought. The office is not a political office and the man who aspires to it may be a Dowdette, a Bryanite, a La Folletteite, an every day democrat, or an old line republican and no questions asked. If he were the blue, and lives to tell the tale in the year 1904, he is eligible, and if in addition to this he possesses the qualifications possessed by Captain Norcross, he is a desirable candidate. When the Grand Army men vote for a commander tomorrow, they will not ask whether he is a disciple of La Follette, or whether he is more conservative. If they elect Captain Norcross to the position, they will be assured of a good commander.

THE COUNTY BOARD

The Board of Supervisors at its last session, instructed the clerk to advertise for bids for publishing the proceedings of the board, and also for printing 2500 pamphlets for free distribution. A number of bids were received from publishers in the county having papers which represent circulation of from 500 to 6,000. One of the 500 class was the lowest bidder, and the contract was awarded to him. The fact is ignored that the object of the publication is publicity, and that the tax payers of the county are interested to know what the men are doing who are elected to serve them.

These proceedings are published as an advertisement and the value of the advertising is determined by the amount of publicity. The merchant who pays the same price for space in a paper with 500 circulation that he does in a paper with several times that number would require the services of a guardian to keep him out of bankruptcy, and yet this is the way the county board does business. So far as the publishing of the pamphlet is concerned, it is a waste of money, and always has been. Not one in ten of them is ever opened. The proceedings of the board should be published in supplement form, and distributed by every paper in the county. This would put a copy in the hands of every tax payer and the cost would be less than the policy now pursued.

THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE

The republican national committee, now in session, is the highest political tribunal of the party and while there is no law which governs absolutely in politics, the law of custom and long established usage is always recognized and on this law, added by a desire to be fair and impartial, the committee bases decision. The Wisconsin case, now being considered is the result of a long continued political fight, within the ranks of the party, which reached a climax at the last state convention. The contending factions both claim to be in the right, and unusual methods have been adopted to establish the claim.

Unable to compromise, the National Committee is now called upon to decide which faction is entitled to party recognition, not from a legal standpoint, but from the standpoint of justice and party prestige. One faction or the other will be defeated, for a compromise is neither practical nor desirable. The threat is already being made that if the governor and his colleagues fail to gain a seat in the convention, that a bolt throughout the state will be organized, and every effort made to defeat all republican nominees for state, legislative, and county office.

The conservative wing of the party is not indulging in any talk of this kind, because it places loyalty above prejudice, and has no disposition to assume an attitude of defiance. The fact is recognized by all thoughtful republicans that the party is greater than the small faction represented in the state of Wisconsin, and they do not propose to divorce themselves from their political home and life long associations.

The republican national committee is composed of one representative from every state in the Union. It is an intelligent and unprejudiced body of men, honored because of confidence inspired by loyalty, and peculiar ability to perform the important work assigned them. From the decisions of this party court there is no appeal and no disposition to appeal, because the party at large is satisfied that their representatives are competent to decide perplexing questions, and decide them right.

Wisconsin republicans can afford to wait patiently for the decision of the National Committee. They can also afford to refrain from any threats about what they will or will not do under certain conditions. The stamp of approval of either faction, by the National Committee means the endorsement of the national party. There will be plenty of time for the defeated faction to decide what course should be pursued after this is done. The rank and file of the party believes in loyalty, and eratic measures will not meet with approval when the welfare of the party is attacked.

The Milwaukee merchants and business men are making another tour of the state in the interests of their city. This evidences a spirit of commendable enterprise and will produce results. Milwaukee is entitled to more state trade than the city receives. The national committee will be in session for the next week engaged in considering the claims of contesting delegations for seats in the republican national convention. Wisconsin is on the list, and results will be watched with interest. May the right win.

There was enough disorder in the parks and on the streets last Sunday afternoon and evening to keep government officers busy, but they were as scarce as game wardens during a campaign.

Someone in writing about conditions in Colorado says: It is simply a case of lawlessness against lawlessness. A state can not long exist under the government of a vigilance committee, a martial law was never intended for a free country.

Thirty thousand ears will be required to carry this year's crop of oranges to the eastern market, and it is an off year for fruit at that.

PRESS COMMENT

Kenosha Gazette: All that glitters is not gold, even in Colorado. Just now the rifle barrel appears to lead all rivals.

Chicannati Commercial Tribune: The Police Judge of Washington has had a department clerk for persisting in whistling "Hedelin." That's the sort of imperialism that counts!

Sheboygan Journal: A Joliet, Ill., negro has been found keeping a white boy as a slave, the black race is still 1576,429 from being even with the whites on that score.

Chicannati Commercial Tribune: Considering their high prices, it must be the gown of the sweet girl graduate that lies beyond the Alps.

Scranton Tribune: Mr. Hearst says that he is still a candidate, but his efforts now seem to be centered upon the study of the best manner in which to back off the stage gracefully.

Oshkosh Northwestern: Thank fortune the masculine portion of humanity seems destined to escape the shirtwaist problem this season. Perhaps it is a case of too much politics.

Chicago Record-Herald: Russia has just found out that her latest permission to take the Black Sea through the Dardanelles has the same fault that was noticeable in the preceding ones. It doesn't perah.

San Claire will be interested if not pleased to know that the Schlachtcoke county club, of La Crosse, defeated the Whomia Meardbrooks at golf no less than 71 up. The victors must have used their name to foolze with.

Fond du Lac Commonwealth: The United States court of appeals having passed upon the case of Miss Rebecca J. Taylor, who, while a clerk in the war department, wrote a newspaper article criticizing the acts of the president, it is thus the case of a young woman to take her medicine. It is to be hoped that she may have gathered wisdom from her experience with the buzz saw.

Grant County Herald: A wise man told us that man descended from ape. His may be true if the people of Wisconsin want a democratic congress and free trade, then it will undoubtedly be true that the majority of us when we started on our upward journey for our ancestral home bought round trip tickets.

Superior Telegram: The crop reports throughout the northwest are very favorable. Grain is fine, although it has been too cool for the largest possible production of vegetables. There will be a big grass crop and dairying will prosper this year.

Chicago Chronicle: The Canadian professor who gave President W. R. Harper of the University of Chicago the title of "Midas of the golden touch" was a little rough on Mr. Rockefeller, a strict teetotaler, who performs must play the part of Bacchus.

Green Bay Gazette: The holder of a public office is working for the community as a whole and if a life of service for others is the highest ideal, the man who devotes a lifetime to the honest, faithful and intelligent performance of the duties of any public office should be the most respected and esteemed of citizens.

Oshkosh Northwestern: Ex-Governor Board's paper this week contains a highly complimentary article regarding a recent address delivered by Mr. Bryan. The efforts of Governor La Follette seem to have resulted in the complete conversion of the former governor to the principles of the great Nebraskan.

Ashland Press: If the supreme court of Wisconsin decides in favor of the Stalwart convention at Madison, it will follow, of course, that there was no other legal convention and the same is true if the decision favors the Half Breeds. The legal convention, therefore, will carry with it the presidential electors, and their names will appear in the regular Republican column.

Waukesha Freeman: The one certain way that the republicans in Wisconsin can avoid defeat is for the rank and file to decide to abide by the findings of an impartial court as to which is the legally constituted Republican ticket and vote for it next November, providing the case is brought into court. If it is not, there is no question which ticket will appear under the appellation of Republican.

Hudson Star-Times: Tell us this—If the courts shall decide that the Cook ticket is the regular "Republican ticket" and Mr. La Follette's ticket shall decide to run "Independent" how is it going to get any of the votes of men, or senators, or county nominees, who their half breeds or stalwarts, under its ticket hereafter, when nominated in regular republican conventions, and there are no "electing" opportunities?

Marquette Eagle-Star: Secretary Elmer Dover of the Republican national committee yesterday completed the roll of contests which the national committee will have to consider next week when it begins its sessions on the 15th. The state contests on delegates at large are from Wisconsin, Texas, Delaware and Louisiana. The district contests are: Alabama, fourth; Delaware, fourth; Georgia, second; Mississippi, fourth; Missouri, fifth; Ohio, fourth; Kentucky, second; South Carolina, first; Texas, second and seventh; Virginia, second, and seven districts in Louisiana.

Evening Wisconsin: Those who come back from St. Louis report that the exhibits are inexhaustible. The fact that the show is incomplete is being remedied every week, and there is so much to see that there is no complaint on the part of spectators. Indeed, the chief criticism is that the exhibition is too big—twice the area of Chicago. The more physical weariness of getting about is considerable. The attendance is not what was expected, but, having seen Chicago and Buffalo, many of the middle west are pretty well sated with world's fairs. Nevertheless, it is an education to see the St. Louis exhibition, and there is such excellent train service from Wisconsin that every one who can should visit the southern city. The prices are grotesquely high from all reports; but for those who wish a room and breakfast for $1.00, this is possible. One can always buy a box of Uneda biscuit and frankfurters.

Madison Journal: The impression in some quarters that a number of game wardens would be honored degrees and invested in fur hood and trailing gowns proves unwarranted.

Racine Journal: There is no reason why the state of Wisconsin should not be seriously considered in this vice presidential matter. Why not the northwest be honored in ex-Governor Seefeld?

Chicago Tribune: It is true that Nebraska has no building at the St. Louis fair, but the state expects to make a display at St. Louis next month, notwithstanding, under the head of Exhibit B.

El Paso Herald: The casual Jap torpedo boat reported loading the Red Sea has taken all the ambition for hostilities out of Russia's European fleet; it decides that duty calls on it to stay around home and protect the Baltic.

Neenah Times: A new and queer industry has been developed in Kenosha, the shipping of files of the valley to Chicago. During the present season one woman in Kenosha has shipped 4,500 blooms to the city and has received pay at the rate of $2 for a hundred flowers.

Chicago Record-Herald: Booker T. Washington says the people of the South can't expect to lynch the negro in the winter and have him back to pick cotton in the summer. These words are reported to have caused the South to sit up and wonder.

DEBT.

"Don't run in debt! never mind, never mind. If the clothes are all faded and torn, fly them up, make them do, it is better by far Than to have the heart weary and worn. Who'll love you the more for the set of your hat, Or your ruff, or the tie of your shoe, The shape of your vest, or your boots or cravat, If they know you're in debt for the new?"

ANNOUNCEMENT.
To Whom It May Concern:
We, The SHURTLEFF COMPANY, would respectfully announce to our patrons and friends that we have sold the Milk and Cream interests connected with our Ice Cream Plant to Messrs. Gridley & Craft, of Milwaukee.
These gentlemen have for several years been identified with one of the most successful plants for the preparation and distribution of dairy products in that city. We feel confident in saying that from the wide experience they have had along this line of work, Janesville people who desire pure goods will be well cared for. Every modern idea for the production of pure dairy products will be instilled, and the new firm will assume charge Thursday, June 16th.
We desire to thank all our friends for their patronage in the past, and bespeak for the new firm a continuation of the pleasant relations, which we feel positive they will merit.

Instructions Sent Supervisor of Assessments to List Milwaukee Street "Submerged" Separately in Rolls

"River lots" are subject to taxation the same as other real estate according to the ruling of the state tax commission and N. S. Gilson of the state commission has written to Supervisor of Assessments W. J. McIntyre instructing that the land in the bed of the Rock which sustains the Myers estate building, and the structures owned by Edwin F. Carpenter, M. G. Jeffris and George G. Sutherland, shall be so assessed in this year's rolls.

Authorities Quoted
The state commission of course is not the final authority in the matter and it is not improbable that at some time the courts will be called to pass upon the question. The commission refers the supervisor of assessments to the case of Janesville vs. Carpenter, 77 Wis. 238, in which the supreme court held that the owners of land in the bed of the Rock river could not be restrained from the erection of abutments or pilings in said river and that they had the right to erect the buildings now standing on the south side of the Milwaukee street bridge. It appeared that one of the parties had acquired title in fee to a parcel of land in the bed of the river on which some of the buildings were erected, from the riparian owner of the lot, one Thomas Lappin. The court held that within certain limitations he, as the right to construct anything he pleases to the thread of the stream unless it injures some other riparian proprietor or those having the superior right to use the water for hydraulic purposes. The land in the bed of the river being private property is of the same character and should be subject to the same public burden as land on the banks, being liable to assessment as real estate or real property under the statute of this state.

So Assessed on the Rolls
On the rolls which assessors Conrad and Davies are making of the separate value of the land exclusive of the buildings has for the first time been entered in a column by itself. The valuation of the buildings is entered under the column "Improvements." Where lots on the river bank adjoining have been assessed at $3,500, the river lots are assessed at $3,000. As a matter of fact the owners will pay no additional tax on their property this year at least, as the buildings have for several years been assessed at more than their real value, compared with other structures of the kind. This was done arbitrarily by assessors who sought by this method to obviate any advantage which might accrue to these owners over others whose real estate was situated on the river bank. The valuation of the lots has simply been subtracted from the valuation of the buildings, and the aggregate assessment remains the same as before.

MARRIED AFTER A FEW DIFFICULTIES

Laverne F. Metz and Nellie E. Winne of Freeport, Arrived at Seven O'clock This Morning.

Laverne F. Metz and Nellie E. Winne, both of Freeport, besieged the courthouse at seven o'clock this morning. They wanted a marriage license and were in great haste. Laverne Nelson was the only official thereabouts at the time and he advised the couple of the state law in Wisconsin requiring five days' notice before the issuance of such licenses. The face of the intending groom was a puzzle when this announcement was made. He had supposed that the same customs prevailed in Wisconsin as in Illinois and had chosen Janesville as the place least likely to be suspected by friends. He and his bride-to-be were very anxious to have the knot tied and get back to Rockford before the forenoon should have passed. After a long wait County Clerk Starr arrived. He advised the couple to endeavor to get a special permit from Judge Sale but it was soon discovered that the latter had gone out into the country. Judge Pichler was finally communicated with and after they had answered several questions over the telephone the couple repulsed to his home where they were happily married. The groom, who was twenty-two, and the bride, who was twenty-two, after reaching Rockford it was the intention of Mr. and Mrs. Metz to depart on a honeymoon trip to Iowa.

LAYING OF THE PUBLIC SEWERS

Will Probably Commence Late in July—Assessment Roll Is Now About Completed.

The assessment rolls for the sewer tax are about completed and the public hearing of those who have any grievances to make known will soon be called for. The official request for bids for the construction must be issued, the latter received, opened, and passed upon before the actual excavations begin. Late in July, perhaps, the first pick will penetrate the stubborn soil of South Main street. About that time, also, the actual work of building the new bridge is likely to commence.

CROP CONDITIONS ARE IMPROVING

Reports From the Milwaukee Bureau Give a Prosperous Outlook for Wisconsin Crops.

The weather conditions during the past week were mainly favorable for the advancement of all vegetation. The early part of the week was cool, especially at night, but no frosts were reported. High temperatures prevailed generally throughout the state during the past few days and as the soil is well stored with moisture all crops show a rapid and healthy growth.

With the exception of a few light local showers in some of the western counties practically no rain fell during the week and farmers took advantage of the fair weather to complete the planting of potatoes and corn, and to replant corn where necessary.

Winter Wheat and Rye. Winter wheat and rye have made very satisfactory progress during the week. Rye is headed out in the southern portion of the state and is reported generally in strong healthy condition. The present indications point to a large crop. Winter wheat is somewhat less promising than rye, but is generally considered as satisfactory.

Spring Grains. Oats, barley, spring wheat and spring rye have made rapid growth during the week, under the influence of the warmer weather. The plants are strong and healthy, except where injured by the excessive rains of last week.

Corn. The cool nights during the early part of the week were not favorable to corn, but the warmer weather during the past few days has resulted in a general improvement. The unusually large amount of replanting made necessary by poor seed and the cold, wet weather is rather discouraging. Early planted corn in the southern section is ready for cultivation and in some localities has already been cultivated for the first time. Warm weather, especially at night, is needed for this crop.

Potatoes. The planting of potatoes was generally completed during the week. Some of the early plantings are up and look well.

Tobacco. The ground is generally prepared and some transplanting has been done. The plants are reported somewhat backward on account of cool weather, but are generally strong and healthy. With favorable weather a large acreage will be transplanted next week.

Meadows and Pastures. Pastures are furnishing an abundance of feed. Old meadows are generally somewhat thin, but new seedings give assurance of a large crop.

Minor Crops. Sugar beets are reported in excellent condition and give promise of a large yield. Field peas and garden truck have improved during the week, under the influence of the warmer weather.

Fruit. Strawberries are beginning to ripen. The crop is large and the quality excellent. The early varieties of apples promise a large crop. Plums and cherries are only fair crop. Blackberries and raspberries are light.

Southern Section. Mukwanago, Waukesha county: Some corn to be planted yet; rain needed; pastures are getting dried up, and hay crop will be short if drought continues.—W. Addison, Brookfield. Evansville, Rock county: Weather too dry for grass and small grain; corn all planted and cultivation in progress; tobacco setting begun.—W. W. Gillies.

Darlington, Lafayette county: Weather during past week too cold for corn, but other crops are looking good; strawberries are beginning to ripen.—Warren Gray.

Alderly, Dodge county: Past week generally favorable to all crops; corn poor, but improved considerably during latter part of the week.—John Steele.

Shullsburg, Lafayette county: Corn has made good headway, notwithstanding the cool nights; oats looking good; potatoes making satisfactory growth.—H. B. Chamberlain.

W. M. WILSON, Section Director.

GROWING CROPS IN GOOD FORM

Government Experts Make This Report in Their Budget of Farm News.

The United States weather bureau's weekly summary of crop conditions is as follows:

In the central and western gulf states favorable temperatures prevailed during the week ending June 13, but elsewhere east of the Rocky mountains and on the north Pacific coast complaints of insufficient heat are quite general, while hot, northerly winds have caused further injury to nearly all crops in California. There has been too much rain in portions of Texas, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Kansas and North Dakota, and also over the northern portions of the middle Atlantic states and New England, while lack of moisture is beginning to be felt in the Ohio valley and portions of the upper Mississippi valley and upper lake region. In these last named districts, however, the conditions were very favorable for farm work. Frosts on the 11th in the middle and northern plateau districts and in the eastern portions of Oregon and Washington proved injurious.

Throughout the central valleys and middle Atlantic states corn has made slow growth, and in Kansas and Nebraska much of the crop is still weedy, although it is in an improved state of cultivation. In Iowa, Missouri, Illinois and Indiana fields are generally clean, but in the middle Atlantic states rains have interfered with cultivation. In Texas a good yield of corn is now assured, and the crop is promising elsewhere in the southern states.

As a whole winter wheat continues to advance favorably, a general improvement being indicated in the Ohio valley and middle Atlantic states. Some injury is reported, however, by fly from Indiana and from overflows in Kansas, and harvesting has been interrupted by rains in northern Texas and Oklahoma. Harvesting has begun in southeast Missouri and southern Texas and some wheat is ready for harvest in southern Kansas, where wet soil has prevented commencement of this work. Wheat harvest is nearly finished in the South Atlantic and East Gulf states. On the Pacific coast winter wheat has done well except in California, where it has suffered from hot winds. In the last named state harvest has begun with generally light yields.

Spring wheat continues to make satisfactory progress and is in very promising condition.

Nearly all reports respecting oats indicate that the outlook for this crop is very promising. Oats are now heading as far north as Kansas, Missouri and Tennessee.

A further improvement in cotton is generally indicated throughout the cotton district. Transplanting of tobacco in the more northerly sections is well advanced, and that recently planted is making a fine start. The general condition of this crop is very satisfactory. A fine crop of hay is generally promised in nearly all sections.

BIG BOATS BEGIN THEIR TRIPS

Hundreds of Ore Shovelers and Other Employees Are Given Work When Steel Carrier Arrives at Illinois Steel Company Docks to Load.

Chicago, June 15.—The lake marine tie-up came to an end Tuesday night after one of the very hardest wars ever waged on the great lakes, lasting six weeks and affecting several hundred thousand workers and several hundred millions in capital invested. A cessation of the strike and lockout was brought about by the surrender of the masters, who, with the pilots, have been holding out for a more uniform scale of wages for this season than had been offered them by the Lake Carriers' association. This means that hundreds of ships at once will begin carrying the huge accumulations of grain, coal and iron ore at the various lake ports.

Advices Captains to Return. The strike was formally declared off from Cleveland by District Captain Paul Howell of the Masters and Pilots' association, who issued this statement:

"We have concluded that it would be good policy at this stage of the game, owing to the existing conditions over which we have no control, to advise our captains to go to work and make the most of a bad situation. Our mates will meet at the earliest possible opportunity and make arrangements along the line of their own ideas and present them to the lake carriers for acceptance. In the meantime the mates will remain where they are until this arrangement is made and agreed to by the two associations."

It will be seen from this statement that only the captains are ordered back, and with the understanding that the lake carriers will soon come to an agreement with the mates, who still retain their membership in the union.

Effect of the Strike. The following statement shows the number of workers, amount of capital and number of ships affected by the strike: Masters and pilots, 3,100; marine engineers, 3,500; marine firemen, oilers and water tenders, 4,500; tugmen, deck hands, etc., 3,000; seamen, wheelmen and watchmen, 4,000; vessel unloaders, 9,000; lumber shovelers, 5,000; marine cooks, 2,500; longshore workers, 170,000; total, 204,600; capital tied up, $250,000,000; vessels affected, 3,000; duration of strike, six weeks.

According to the officers of the lake carriers that body has been willing to grant last year's pay, but this was not agreeable to the masters and pilots because of men doing exactly the same kind of work on the various boats. The strike has been one of the most costly in wages, time lost and stagnation to business that has occurred in recent years.

Ore Docks Are Opened. The big ore docks of the Illinois Steel Company have been opened and 500 men set to work through the arrival of the ore boat Greelan. The 500 ore shovelers and other dock employees of the steel company, who have been idle for two months owing to the lake strike, welcomed the news that they were to return to work. The resumption of business on the ore docks at South Chicago will be felt in all lines of business of that suburb. Several hundred men were given work when the ore docks of the Ingot Furnace Company were opened.

Keep the Brain Active. People often make the excuse that they have had memories when the truth is they are too slovenly to use their brains. Nothing, however, insignificant, should be done without reflection. First thoughts are often best, but it is sometimes not until we have thought many times that we can make them so.

Girl That Is Popular. There is great charm about the girl who agrees with you, all argument to the contrary notwithstanding. The girl who argues with you may be the girl who keeps you up to the mark mentally. But there is a certain soothing something about the girl who agrees with you that is delightful.

Makes One Pipe Last Long. Among those who smoke pipes M. Van Eekle, a Belgian, easily holds the first place. Others may consume more tobacco in a year than he does, but no one, it is claimed, can get as much enjoyment out of a pipeful of tobacco as he can, for he can smoke steadily for two hours and seven minutes without refilling his pipe or letting it go out.

hundred children for whom no charge was made. There were few men in the party. Of the thirty-six bodies at Alexander avenue station thirty are women, and six children. The police official said at one thirty fully one hundred and twenty-five bodies were landed at piers on the New York side.

The Day in Review. Let not sleep fall upon thine eyes till thou hast thrice reviewed the transactions of past day. Where have I turned aside from rectitude? What have I been doing? What have I left undone, which I ought to have done? Begin thus from the first act, and proceed; and in conclusion, at the ill which thou hast done, be troubled, and rejoice for the good.—Pythagoras.

English Women Dull. An authority says that American women are, for the most part, more thorough, more intelligent, better informed, larger minded, and more agreeable to meet than their British sisters. The average Englishwoman is dull, idle, sluggish and incompetent; the average American is busy, bright, energetic and capable.

Sneezing. There is a superstition to the effect that the sneezing of a cat indicates good luck to a bride. There is another that if a cat sneezes three times a cold will run through the family owning the cat.

Collects Union Jacks. A London laborer has collected many hundreds of Union Jacks of all shapes and sizes. Every table, bed and pillow in his house has its covering of hunting. The very shirt this man wears is a red-white-and-blue one.

Those Musical Critics. "People go in big crowds to hear symphonies, but their ain't many kin tell ye right sudden what it's all about," says Uncle Si.
